

School Council Minutes

April 14, 2015

Fr. Paul opened with a prayer.

Those attending included Fr. Mike, Fr. Paul, Mrs. Dagele, Angel Oltjenbruns, Jeff Mollenhoff, Doug Sader, Brent Volesky, and Ray Kranz. Charlie Mack and Michael Makens attended as guests.

Ray read the minutes of the March 10, 2015 meeting.

Nicole Katz of CGI Communications gave a teleconference on being one of approximately 20 sponsors of the city of Watertown's website. Start up fees range from $1395 to $5495, which would pay the first two years, half of start up cost annually from then on.

The Statement of Activities was reported on by Angel. Fr. Ken at Holy Rosary will pay the $3800 total tuition starting next year. This will add up to $61,770, approximately $15,000 up from this school year.

Mrs. Dagele went over the Principal's Report. She emphasized her opinion the school needs a facelift and more classrooms need to be added in a letter she had emailed to the School Task Force. The Elizabeth Setan, service to others program will be started next year and a number of kids have signed up to be involved with it already.

There will be another School Council meeting May 5th to discuss facilities only.

Fr. Mike closed with a prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

Ray Kranz, Secretary
