

Spanish lesson for K-6th grade: May 5th and May 7th

¡Feliz Cinco de Mayo!

In honor of 5 de mayo, which is this Tuesday, families may choose any of the following options to celebrate this Mexican-American holiday.

- 1.) Watch this video about cinco de mayo: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O20HgEL0t8I>

- 2.) Choose one of the following activities. You may choose as many as you would like, but only one is required for this week's Spanish grade. Have fun and maybe even have a fiesta! ¡Olé!
 - a. Make your own sombrero and maracas (requires a paper plate, a plastic cup, and a plastic egg)

- 3.) Please e-mail me at mrs.garvey@icschoolwatertown.org and let me know which activity/ activities you and your family completed. Please include your name and grade. If you are able to send pictures, I would love to see how you and your family celebrated cinco de mayo! ☺

- 4.) This will be your final Spanish project. Please check your grade, and e-mail me if you have any questions or concerns.

Blessings! (¡Bediciones!) ~Señora Garvey
